

ABOUT ACT

Association Communities for Youth is a NGO acting in City of Bailesti South West Oltenia region of Romania.

ACT mission is to develop, implement and support youth development programs built around the concepts of lifelong learning, mobility and associativity. ACT works to empower young people to participate actively in society to improve their own lives. The aim of this empowerment is to establish a wide-based community movement which encourages the positive involvement of young people in solving issues which affect them, treating them as resources, not as problems.

What will I DO in the ACT for CHANGE and ACT for CHANGE 2 projects?

The activity aims to respond to the need of diversifying the range of opportunities for personal and professional development, resulting in increased knowledge, skills and competences for the target group and volunteers. We aim to provide opportunities for the personal and professional development of volunteers and target group using volunteering and non-formal education by implementing activities that integrate positive youth development principles into the formal education system and to promote an increased volunteering awareness.

GENERAL OBJECTIVE

ACT is committing to ensuring that young people have the knowledge, skills, and motivation to be effective civic participants who bring their values to public decision-making. To do this we are partnering with schools and local administration from Craiova to bring non-formal education to their beneficiaries.

The general objective of the project is to provide personal and professional opportunities for 300 students in Craiova by implementing non-formal development programmes and workshops centered around 3 interweaving topics: solidarity and social inclusion, active citizenship and eco-friendly behaviours.

Concretely, as a volunteer in our project you will be involved in the following:

- Beneficiary/institutions needs analysis - we will implement several needs analysis methods such as surveys, panel and round table discussions with staff and students of the partner institutions, non-formal games, role play etc.
- Leadership Development programme - workshops using non-formal methods to transmit information, knowledge and develop skills competencies (Facilitation; Negotiation; Public speaking; Decision; Dealing with changes; Dealing with crisis; Working with difficult/challenging people; Communication techniques; Team work, Motivation etc.) and attitudes (Motivation to work for better results; Self-confidence; Being organized; Tolerance; Valuing diversity) related to leadership.

- Implement facilitation and consensus building activities - workshops aimed at encouraging the youth to aggregate around common issues. These range from non-formal games that encourage youth to discuss and debate issues, games to help with problem tree analysis, to games designed to inspire and call to action to simple meetings that are run with facilitation methods and principles such as “The Spokes council” or similar methods.
- Designing solidarity initiatives/projects - the volunteers shall plan, organize and implement non-formal workshops with the beneficiaries to: a)rise the beneficiaries knowledge and skills in project planning/writing b) brainstorm/generate/identify solutions for issues identified in earlier stages, c)design a plan of action(chose activities, define timeframes, identify resources needed);
- Promotion of Active Citizenship – non-formal workshops, games, events that aim at the development of pro-EU, pro-democratic and civic skills, competences and attitudes, Increased awareness and knowledge; about EU institutions and topics and issues of EU importance; Increased level of European Active citizenship and civic engagement. These can be debates about EU topics, simulation of EU parliament, role play, local news agency game, etc.
- Stimulating creativity and cultural awareness programme: will capitalize on cultural diversity among volunteer will contain activities such as presentations of volunteers cultures, non-formal workshops on traditional arts & crafts, traditional dances and music, arts workshops (painting, clay modeling, singing, handicrafts), theatre, role play, creative play (use familiar materials in a new or unusual ways), problem solving (application of knowledge and imagination to a given situation). This also will be used to build self-esteem and self-confidence.
- Learning languages programme: under the form of language clubs that use non-formal methods(games, workshops, movies, songs, role-plays, handicrafts, flash cards etc.) to help the participant learn or strengthen their ability to speak other languages
- Environmental awareness and skill development workshops – this activities will utilize various non-formal methods, some developed internally in past project, others collected from partners and online handbook while new ones will be developed with the volunteers during the planning meetings.
- Promotion of volunteering and the Solidarity Corps – running volunteering promotion campaigns and activities at local level. These activities will include designing awareness building messages and materials (flyers, posters, brochures), organizing presentations, distributing materials, online promotion, organizing a final project conference on the topic of volunteering and social inclusion. The main target groups for the campaign will be young people in terminal years of high school, university students and unemployed young people

The above mentioned activities are the general overview but each volunteer has the opportunity to propose, implement and carry on new types of activities bases on previous experiences, personal preferences, skills and abilities and well as have direct control over the methods used to implement the activities.

What will I learn in ACT for CHANGE and ACT for CHANGE 2 projects?

Our methodology of learning by doing or experiential learning places the volunteer at the center of his/her learning process and encourage commitment to it. Each volunteer will have a personalized development plan that targets personal skills as well as professional skills, a mentor to help guide the volunteer and a counterpart to guide him in working with the target group in the working institutions.

In the project we will be employing a Learning by doing methodology based on a 4 cyclical stages model:

1. Concrete Experience – going out and engaging with the activity
2. Reflection on that experience on a personal basis – self-reflection and guided reflection assisted by the mentor which aims at derivation of general rules describing the experience, or the application of previous experiences and knowledge to it
3. Abstract Conceptualization – supported by the participatory planning model and dynamic role distribution practiced the management team. In this stage the management helps the volunteer in the of ways of modifying the next occurrence of the experience
4. Active Experimentation – turning the abstract into concrete activities and restarting the cycle at no.1

All throughout the learning process and the project you will be assisted by the ACT team and a personal mentor in managing what, when and how you learn all these skills.

At the end you will receive a Youthpass certificate which is a European Instrument for recognition and certification of skills acquired in ESC
